

From the desk of Pastor T

To everyone impacted by the senseless acts of violence that occurred outside Union Station after the Kansas City Chiefs Super Bowl LVIII victory celebration, my heart breaks for you. As we struggle to process how such a joyous event turned tragic so quickly, it is understandable that your faith may be shaken. But, even in the midst of the horror, we saw God at work: in the swift, heroic actions of law enforcement and emergency personnel, and the random acts of kindness by everyday citizens— strangers one to another — holding, caring for and protecting each other. We'll likely never understand the minds of those who perpetrated this heinous act. But what we know for sure is that God is in control, and he has NOT given us a spirit of fear, but of power, love and self-discipline. Let us continue to encourage each other, and pray for healing, knowing in the end, it's all in His hands.

*"Peace I leave with you; my peace I give you. I do not give to you as the world gives. Do not let your hearts be troubled and do not be afraid." John 14:27

Sincerely,
